A Journal of The American Physiological Society

Scope of Journal
The American Journal of Physiology-Heart and Circulatory Physiology brings you the most distinguished reporting of leading-edge findings in the field.

AJP-Heart and Circulatory Physiology covers all areas of the cardiovascular physiology, including:

- experimental and theoretical studies of cardiovascular function from the whole organism to cellular, subcellular, and molecular levels
- critical new insights into the mechanisms that determine the performance of the normal and abnormal heart and circulation
- timely editorial reviews

Authors are required to submit papers online at www.apscentral.org.

A Few HOT Articles

Reader & Author Benefits
- Fully searchable text, including PubMed
- Rich color and sharp resolution of figures
- Editor’s Home Page at www.the-aps.org/publications/ajpheart
- FREE access to the extensive collection of back issues available online 12 months after publication
- FREE e-mail notification of new content as it becomes available
- Manuscripts online within days of acceptance
- Perpetual/Electronic Archiving of the LOCKSS and CLOCKSS systems preserves the electronic content of all APS journals.

For a guide to submitting to www.apscentral.org, see http://www.the-aps.org/publications/apscentralguide.pdf

Manuscripts to AJP-Heart and Circulatory Physiology are submitted online through www.apscentral.org.

Mandatory Submission Forms and Fee Forms customized to your manuscript become available on completion of the submission process. For extra copies of blank forms, see http://www.the-aps.org/publications/journals/index.htm

If you use a blank form, please write the manuscript number, title, and author’s name CLEARLY on the form.

Attention Authors:

Important Information about the NIH Public Access Policy & Your Manuscript

Under the NIH Public Access Policy, NIH is asking its funded investigators to voluntarily submit to PubMed Central (PMC) the author’s final manuscript of articles resulting from research supported in whole or in part with direct costs from NIH. According to the NIH, this policy applies only to manuscripts accepted for publication on or after May 2, 2005.

If you choose to submit your accepted manuscript to PMC, you will be asked to indicate when that manuscript should be made available to the public. As copyright holder of your article, the APS has the sole right to publish or disseminate it. However, the APS grants you permission to allow public release of your manuscript through PMC 12 months after publication in the print version of an APS journal.

This period of time is consistent with our existing policy to make all content publicly available through HighWire Press 12 months after print publication. NIH will be able to determine when 12 months have elapsed because APS sends NIH electronic feeds of the article metadata upon publication in a journal issue. Therefore, you can submit your accepted manuscript to PMC at the time of acceptance to an APS journal, and will not have to calculate or track time elapsed from publication.

NIH intends to use the PMC database of manuscripts for portfolio management; to create a permanent archive of articles based upon NIH-funded research; and to give the public access to research publications. In announcing this policy, NIH officials underscored that it is voluntary and there will be no sanctions of any kind against authors who do not submit their manuscripts. If you have any questions with respect to the NIH Public Access Policy and the publication of your article in an APS journal, please contact Margaret Reich at mreich@the-aps.org.
CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

for the Editorship of

Physiological Genomics

Nominations are invited for the Editorship of the Physiological Genomics to succeed A. W. Cowley, Jr., who will complete his term as Editor on June 30, 2009. The Publications Committee plans to interview candidates in the Fall of 2008.

Applications should be received before August 15, 2008.

Nominations, accompanied by a curriculum vitae, should be sent to the Chair of the Publications Committee:

Kim E. Barrett, Ph.D.
9650 Rockville Pike
Bethesda, MD 20814-3991
